AT a special meeting of the Board of property in Lancaster, June 24, 1799.
Present,
Daniel Brodhead, Sec. Gen.
John Hall, Secretary, } of the Land office.
Francis Johnston, Reg. Gen.
The petition of Thomas Stewardson on behalf of himself and the other trustees for the estate of Samuel Caldwell, surviving partner of James Meese, bearing date Philadelphia, 5th Month 17th 1799, stated as follows, viz. That a certain John Collins had in consequence of fraudulent deeds poll, obtained patents for two certain tracts of land, one situate in the county of Northumberland, surveyed to Samuel Caldwell in pursuance of a warrant dated in 1774; and the other situate now in Luzerne county, surveyed to said Caldwell by a warrant also dated in 1774—and requested that patents might be granted, for the said tracts, to William Crammond, Edward Tilghman, John Ashley, and Thomas Stewardson, trustees of the estate of Samuel Caldwell, surviving partner of James Meese, as the said two tracts were part of the estate of Meese and Caldwell.
Whereupon the Board having considered the same, ordered that at least sixty days notice be given in one of the Philadelphia newspapers, and in the Lancaster Journal to the said Collins or his assigns, to appear before the Board on the first Monday in October next, to shew cause if any he or they have, why patents should not issue for the said two tracts to the said trustees agreeably to the prayer of the said petition.

Domeſtic Articles.

WALPOLE, July 15.

A Jacobin writer has, ſomewhere, the following image, which exhibits a tolerable picture of the features of two kinds of political domination. It muſt, however, be added that the firſt member of his paragraph contains a much juſter alluſion, than the ſecond. "Governments have too generally proved to be a kind of political chryſalis, paſſing by progreſſive tranſmutations, from the grub of pure democracy to the butterfly of abſolute monarchy." The author, at the cloſe of his alluſion, which, indeed, is ſufficiently elegant, is more brilliant than correct. Pure democracy is, to be ſure, a grub, a "poor beetle, that we tread upon," it is not only a "creeping thing," but of the loweſt, baſeſt, and moſt offenſive kind. It is always, by the energy of talents, and the arm of power, to be bruſhed away like the filthy ſpider of our cielings. But monarchy, even when abſolute, reſembles a higher order of the ſoaring tribe, than a democratic rhetorician is willing to allow. Monarchy is an eagle. It ſometimes riſes audaciouſly to the ſkies, and ſometimes cruelly pounces its prey; but ſtill it is ſtrong, majeſtic, and bold, and rarely deſcends from the elevation of its greatneſs, or loſes its power to awe, or its perſpicacity to diſcern.

My ſtudies were interrupted, this evening, by the entrance of an old friend. He was, however, a claſſical one; and his converſation was in tone with my books. As politics are a very reigning topic, the different forms of government were caſually mentioned. Your republicaniſm, ſays my friend, who has the works of BUTLER by heart, and who is, by way of excuſe for the boldneſs of the application, an inveterate tory, reminds me of

"When a fly retires to bed,
He reſts his tail above his head;
So, in this mongrel ſtate of ours,
The rabble are the ſupreme powers."

Shenſtone was the moſt indolent of poets, which, by the bye, is a very ſtrong phraſe and expreſſive of the very ſublime of lazineſs. He was even more ſlothful than Thomſon, who, in a lively manner, in his Caſtle of Indolence, deſcribes the yawns, the ſleepineſs, and the languor of a bard. The diſpoſition of Shenſtone is a very ſtrongly and curiouſly manifeſted in one of his letters to the Rev. Mr. Graves. The poet is ſpeaking of his far famed paſtoral, which, as the moſt meritorious of his productions, one would ſuppoſe would be cheriſhed by the author, with ſufficient care. Of this poem he ſays, "I ſend you my ballad, on condition that you return it with ample remarks in your next letter: I ſay, "return it," becauſe I have no other copy, and am too indolent to take one."

"In penance for poſt folly," I condemned myſelf, this evening, to a pint of water gruel, without ſalt; and the peruſal of two Auroras, one Bee, and the ſupplement of an Argus.—An admirable help to a doſe of Lee's pills. The complaining periods of the miſerable, envious columns; the malignant pleaſure their editors diſplay, in detecting and expoſing any ſuppoſed errour in our excellent conſtitution and adminiſtration of goverement, and the fiend like joy they conſtantly evince, in the ſucceſs of the enemies or the diſcomfiture of the friends of our dear country, remind me of the title of a book, publiſhed by John Bunyan, entitled—"Joy from Hell, or the Rejoicings of the Damned Souls."

Extract of a letter, addreſſed to the Editor, from a traveller, in the Weſtern country, dated Nasbville, May 26, 1799.

"The people in this country, owing to their better eſtabliſhed ſituations, and better opportunity for acquiring information, are progreſſing in the ſcience of repoſing confidence in their government. A noiſe has been made in this town, reſpecting the correſpondent who deſcribed the democrats here, according to a publication in your paper, as "buſy demagogues, and mob popularity courtiers." A gentleman of this ſtate, for whom the ſhoe was preciſely fitted, has cleverly put it on.

"The Vermont Lyon has taken a very extraordinary range, and has lately ſurpriſed the people here with his unexpected preſence. They have a monkey here for a ſhow, but it is pretty generally acknowled, that, as this poſſeſſes no faculty for ſpitting, the Lyon is the greateſt curioſity, for a wild beaſt, we have ever here ſeen. A very flouriſhing ſeminary in this neighborhood, have lately had a ſchool exhibition, at which the aforeſaid Lyon was preſent, and from the federal and patriotic orations, delivered by the ſtudents, and applauſively received by the audience, he has conceived a very unfavorable opinion of this ſtate, and has ranged on to Kentucky. Whilſt at Knoxville, he was heard, in company to obſerve, that he was tired of repreſenting the northern people; their ſentiments were faſt changing from republicaniſm to ariſtocracy, and he could not abide to live with ſo corrupt a people; but he continued, he ſhould have no objections, as he intended to remove to the weſtern country to repreſent the people there. A gentleman preſent mentioned the propriety, as he thought, of adviſing how to ſecure his election, if he intended to do ſo, by bringing electors with him."

NEWARK, July 23.

The Editor of the Centinel being obliged to retire from his editorial capacity, which he has ſo long and honorably filled, (for the benefit of his health) it appears his brother has ſucceeded him: conſequently, this petifogging repreſentative, in order that buſineſs ſhould not depreciate, and fearing ſome may doubt his abilities, has given a ſpecimen of his billingſgate performances, under the head of "Communication," in the two laſt Centinels, and promiſes another this week, which, no doubt, will appear under the ſame head. As theſe are not his firſt productions, it is expected he will, by repeated exertions, at leaſt be equal, if not ſuperior to his unchaſte predeceſſor—for ſlander is marked in his countenance, his breath is ſtrongly infected with calumny, and the fermentations of his agitated brain is ſeeking relief:—his laſt ſtruggle in particular, is truly characteriſtic of it, and evinces that this ſon of Momus is fully adequate, and highly worthy the confidence of his conſtituents—he even poſſeſſes the faculty of anticipation! when aſſiſted by his colluſive mercenary. As this paltry Editor has foretold the labor in procuring a tickler for him, I hope he has, ere this, been gratified by an interview with the productions and their progenitors, and ſhould his callous ſoul not be loſt to every ſenſe of ſhame, muſt he will, on reading the ſtatement of facts contained in the laſt week's Gazette, at leaſt feel a juſt ſhame for his long ſcurrilous career. But doubting his conſciouſneſs after the ſeries of invectives exhibited againſt his neighbours, deſpair preſents itſelf to view, and proves that he is not by facts to be retarded in his progreſs; but that vile calumny and ſlanderous epithets are always to characteriſe his immortal ſcandalous fame. All future productions directed to me, whether editorial or communicated, will be treated with ſilent contempt, which is the only reward ſuch paltroon demagogues merit; as the ſource from which they flow is ſufficient to render them deſpicable in the opinion of thoſe who are the genuine ſupporters of truth and virtue; as from factions diſorganizers, calumniating invectives tend only to add merit to the fame of virtuous citizens. The Gazette.

PHILADELPHIA,

FRIDAY EVENING, JULY 26.

A small part only of the Eastern Mail, (due this day at 7 o'clock,) had arrived at the time this paper was put to Press. One would think, in a country where there is so much talk on the subject of Information, Information, that fellows would not be allowed as they are, repeatedly to intercept with impunity, the Information of the whole people.

In the Havanna fleet, an authentic list of which we this day publish, there were upwards of six Thousand tons, Five Hundred and Forty seven Men, and one Hundred and Twenty six guns, besides the convoying ships.

It is well observed, by an elegant writer, "that the Grecians, while the Romans were in the course of their conquests, ceased not, to praise their disinterestedness, and regard them as the defenders of Liberty, believing that they made war, solely to strengthen the laws among men, and to render them happy." Rome, however, swallowed up Greece, with all her wealth, her tribe of admirers, and EULOGISTS.

France is treading in the steps and pursuing the policy of antient Rome. The Democrats of the United States, like the Democrats of Greece, are lavish in the praise of France, and of the disinterested war she is making, to strengthen the laws among men, and render them happy.

France keeps quiet the king of Prussia, and conquers the United Provinces; conquers Switzerland to get at Germany; conquers Italy to get at Egypt; conquers Egypt to get at the East Indies; Constantinople to get at the remaining Northern Nations; Spain and Portugal to get at America, ; and America to become masters of the whole world. This is precisely the course France has pursued, and is pursuing.

The Aurora expects to find the American people, stupid enough to believe that the French, who pay no respect to the laws of nations, who violate treaties, whenever it suits their convenience, and make war upon their neighbors, to extend their dominions, are not ambitious; are just in all their actions; lovers of peace; and friends of liberty. This is the doctrine propagated by the democrats generally.

It is the troops, which a kingdom or state, has on foot, or ready to take the field, and the ships she can send to sea, that induce other Nations to pay attention to her complaints; that evince to them, she is in a state to make War; that consequently preserve to her peace, by compelling aggressing powers, to do her justice, in the silence of negociation. He is either a visionary, a designing politician, or of weak intellects, who would attempt to persuade the people, that the United States may preserve peace, be secure from the ambition and injustice of foreign power, or have at all times, their rights respected, without having a visible force, consisting of an army and navy, always ready to act.

In forming their systems of defence, the United States must not measure what military force they ought, or ought not, to keep ready for action, by the temporary disasters, or successes of any of the European powers engaged in the present war. Success in war is mutable, and will often change sides, without varying the designs of an enemy, or effectually diminishing his real force. Let the United States therefore, depend for their safety, not upon the disasters of an enemy, or success of a friendly power, but under Providence, upon their own strength, and state of preparation, to meet, and defeat hostility, from whatever quarter it may approach.

A new brig the property of the United States, called President Adams, was launched on Rouge river, six miles from Detroit, on the 25th ultimo. She carries 18 guns, is remarkably handsome and well built.

A letter from Martinique, of the 4th inst. mentions the safe arrival there, of the Isabella, from Baltimore; and states that the Merimac sloop of war had captured the French privateer Retaliation, with 130 men. both which had been spoken by the Isabella.

Authentic Intelligence from Spain.

Extract of a Letter dated May 24, '99.

"We have received certain information that the Spanish fleet from Ferrol has arrived at Rochefort. The fleet from Cadiz of 17 sail of the line has also got into Carthagena, much damaged by a violent gale of wind; several of them being so much injured in their masts and rigging that they cannot be fit for sea for a considerable time to come."

Extract of a letter from the American consul at Alicant, dated May 18, 1799.

"My last respects advised you that the Brest fleet had passed up. I have now to communicate to you the news received from different vessels arrived at this port, and conceive there is great probability of its veracity. A Swede arrived from Malta brings advice of his having spoke with the French fleet off Saloe on this coast, and that 36 hours after, he fell in with the English fleet composed of twenty sail of the line and eleven frigates, and that he fell foul and broke his jib-boom on board a 74 :—that he gave the information of the French Fleet being on before them.

"A Ragusan vessel, in four days from Mahon, advises that in that port there were eight English line of battle ships and seven frigates ready to join the English fleet; that a frigate had arrived there bringing advices of the French fleet, and that five vessel, had been dispatched to Admiral Nelson, to advise him of the operations of the French.

"A Swede from Leghorn, who left that eight days ago, says that four Austrian commissaries had arrived there two days before he left it, and demanded of the French to surrender it up without delay, or the troops would be ordered to put every man to the sword; that the communication between Florence and Leghorn was cut off."

We hear that at the Board of Commissioners appointed to carry into effect the 6th article of the treaty of amity with Great-Britain further proceedings are suspended; the American commissioners deeming it their duty to lay before the President the differences that prevail between them and the other members of the Board, and in the mean time to be absent until an opportunity shall be given to the two nations, by an explanatory article, to remove the present difficulties. From the friendly dispositions of the two powers towards each other, and from the obvious interest of both to improve and cultivate the present good understanding, it is to be hoped this will be easily accomplished. Besides in the last article of the Treaty of amity, it is expressly agreed that the parties will from time to time readily treat of other articles for faciliating intercourse and obviating difficulties, and will endeavour so to form them, that they may conduce to mutual satisfaction and friendship.

The step taken by the American commissioners when properly considered cannot fail to obtain the highest approbation of every well-wisher to the lasting harmony of the two countries.

Captain Watson, from Hamburgh, informs, that at the time he sailed, 2500 Russians lay at Gluckstadt, about 14 miles below Hamburgh, destined, as was generally believed, to make an irruption into Holland; that 4 British frigates and 9 gun boats were stationed at Cruxhaven, and that on the 16th of June, in the Channel, he was boarded from the Monarch, a 74, and was informed that the Brest fleet had certainly been chased into Toulon.

Extract of a letter from Northampton to a gentleman in this city.

"The people here reason in this sort—That in republican governments, offices of honor and profit should be divided; and that to heap them all on one man, is incompatible with republicanism: that Mr. M'Kean hath been chief justice of the state ever since the revolution: that his salary has been raised three times, to gratify his ambition and avarice: that the appointment is for life, or during good behaviour: that he cannot be removed but by impeachment: that it is the most honorable and lucrative office in the state, except that of governor: that he ought to set bounds to his ambition, or that the good sense of the people should set bounds for him: and that such strides to power are truly alarming in a republican government.

"That he is closely connected with a SPANISH NOBLEMAN, now Minister for the Court of Spain in the city of Philadelphia; that Spain the most despotic government in Europe, is now committing hostilities not only on the commerce of the United States, but stirring up dissatisfaction in the Indian tribes on our Southern and Western frontiers; and that therefore to elect him governor would be the height of madness and absurdity, while there is one drop of independant blood in the veins of Americans, and that while there are hundreds of disinterested gentlemen of at least equal abilities in this state to fill the exalted station. These reflections must have due weight with all well wishers to our blessed independency, and will preponderate in favor of James Ross, who is possessed of all the good qualifications that Mr. M'Kean can possess, without one of the exceptions. We want no Noblemen—We conceive that one who is so nearly allied to a foreign Nobleman must be too much under foreign influence to hold the important office of Governor."

No. IX.

To the Managers of the Alms House and House of Employ.

GENTLEMEN,

IN March 1795 the Guardians to the poor wanted to appoint an accomptant with a salary, but they were not willing to do it without legal authority. The following question was therefore proposed to Walter Franklin.

QUESTION.

Has the Corporation of the Guardians of the poor in the city of Philadelphia authority to appoint a SALARY OFFICER?

OPINION of Walter Franklin.

"After due consideration of the several acts, on which the determination of this question depends, I am of opinion, that the corporation has authority to appoint no other officer than the Treasurer and Collectors of the poor tax."

WALTER FRANKLIN.

March 2d, 1795.

A number of reasons are urged in support of the above opinion, not necessary to be inserted here.

On the 24th of January 1799, the subject was renewed, in the Board of Guardians, when a SALARY was confirmed to Charles Swift, by the following RESOLUTION:

"Whereas it appears to the board, that there are outstanding and unsettled accounts to a considerable amount due to this board, and it is become highly necessary, that some person skilled in law should be appointed with an adequate compensation to adjust the collection of the same; and whereas this board have heretofore appointed ——— * for the above purpose, but have not as yet determined the compensation, RESOLVED, that the compensation to be allowed to the said ———, for all suits brought, and to be brought, and for all legal advice and assistance given to this board, and to the individual members thereof, shall be at the rate of FOUR HUNDRED dollars a year, to be reckoned from the 25th day of September last, to be paid in the manner following, viz. two hundred dollars on the 25th of March next, and two hundred dollars on the 25th day of September next: and it is hereby understood and agreed, that this shall continue to be the compensation and yearly recompence of the said ———, to be paid at the expiration of each and every six months, in each and every succeeding year, upon the days within expressed, until the future orders of this board. Passed 24th of January 1799." The above resolution was laid before the state attorney, by a member of the board of guardians for his opinion, who gave it as follows:

OPINION of Jared Ingersoll.

"I have examined with the best attention in my power the case stated by the guardians of the poor of the city and liberties of Philadelphia.

"I have adverted to all the acts of assembly that have been passed upon the subject.

"I do not entertain any doubt, but that the contract made by the board in this instance has been entered into from the purest motives and a regard to œconomy. At the same time I am of opinion, that the appointment partakes strongly of the nature of a salary as the same sum is payable each year, without regard to the amount of different services performed; and I am of opinion, that the board has no power to appoint a salary officer.

"I would recommend that the board modify their resolution, and engage to pay a reasonable compensation quarterly, for the business done by the person skilled in law, the benefit of whose talents and industry they shall have received."

JARED INGERSOLL.

Feb. 21, 1799.

I will now take the liberty to remark with freedom on this transaction, which is unquestionably very important.

First, the resolution has a retrospective view, fixing the SALARY to commence four months prior to its date. During that time, James Milnor was employed as your attorney (not as a SALARY OFFICER but in the good old way.) Thus it appears you were paying two attornies at the same time, and one of them before he was appointed to that office.

Secondly, respecting the SALARY, the opinions of Jared Ingersoll and Walter Franklin are directly against you. They both positive declare, the guardians have no right to appoint a SALARY OFFICER.

Now, what were the motives that induced this appointment in violation of your charter? Economy it could not be; for in the years 1795, 1796 and 1797, Walter Franklin did the whole business of the guardians and managers to their satisfaction, and his charge for the three years was but £81 17 0 James Milnor succeeded him, and charged for eleven months but twenty eight pounds five shillings. The aggregate expense of the four years was only one hundred and ten pounds two shillings; whereas your SALARY OFFICER, idle or not, will receive on your plan SIX HUNDRED POUNDS†

* The name was not inserted in the resolution offered to J. Ingersoll.

† And if the plan of Charity takes effect, he might receive two salaries, one as a Manager and one as attorney.

Can you account for this difference and satisfy the public? if you can come to the point, and do it:—If you cannot, your Councellor ought to return two hundred dollars he received, and the guardians at all events should immediately rescind their resolution. It is likely, that your President Charles Swift, differed in opinion from Ingersoll and Franklin, the preponderance of which induced you to adopt the resolution, but this being a law queston, I leave it for the bar to determine, reserving however the liberty of exercising my own sentiments.

JOHN F. WATSON, Secretary.

The meeting taking into consideration the shock which the equal rights of men have received from the overwhelming ambition of France; the danger with which every republic on earth has been threatened; and many of them destroyed by her open violence or secret intrigues; and the importance of filling our offices of public trust with men who have ever manifested an exclusive attachment to our own country; who have had no connection with foreign factions, no bias from foreign influence, who are truly republican in their manners and principles, and truly American in their affections and patriotism;

It was unanimously resolved to support JAMES ROSS, Esq. of Pittsburgh.

The meeting then proceeded to the appointment of a corresponding committee, whereupon the following persons were chosen, viz.

From the WESTERN TELEGRAPH.

(The Scots Irishman, at last condescends to gratify his Jacobin readers with a poem in pure English. As it is on their favourite theme, he wants them to understand every word of it. He wants, likewise, to leave it on record, that he too is a votary of liberty; but that he worships not an unknown deity, but a divinity with whose nature and attributes he is in some measure acquainted.)

THE SCOTS-IRISHMAN. TO LIBERTY.

O LIBERTY! much injured name,
For whom so many heroes fought,
Who lift'st the Patriot up to fame,
And lift'st him to a gibbet oft!
Where dwell'st thou? Goddess! dost thou stay
'Long with the "Commoners of air,"
Who sit, and warble on the spray,
Or boundless fly, unheeded where?
Or dost thou range the woody waste,
With the wild herds, and roaming deer,
Who, unconfin'd, the herbage taste,
And drink the gelid rills, so clear?
Or, (mounting up to higher life)
Dost thou the Indian's wigwam bless,
Who thinks his dog, his gun, and knife
The only means of happiness?
Ah! no, sweet nymph! thou dwellest not
With these, whate'er the enlightened say,
Their guardless, unprotected lot
Accords not with thy gentle sway.
The harmless, feeble, feather'd race,
What guards them from the fowler's gun,
The keen-ey'd hawk's unwearied chase,
And wanton Schoolboy's cruel fun?
What guards the rights of the wild beasts
From the fierce prowlers of the wood,
Or fiercer men, with callous breasts,
And rav'nous hands in blood imbru'd?
And the sly Indian, what can save
His person from a stronger arm?
Can he a legal remedy crave
'Gainst those who mean to do him harm?
No, Goddess! these do not possess
The blessings that redound from thee,
Altho' no laws their wills repress,
They never were, nor can be free.
Nor dwell'st thou in the mad uproar
Of the licentious multitude,
Who, in thy stead, an imp adore,
Unseemly, and besmear'd with blood.
The hell-born brood of impious France!
Chaste, sober, nymph! all sort with thee.
Thou'rt gone, whene'er their steps advance,
Thou and thy mate SECURITY.
For with security alone,
'Thout her thou'rt but an idle Song,
A tale for Demagogues to tell.
Here only social men enjoy,
Under the safeguard of the whole,
When well-plac'd pow'r is ever nigh
The selfish Passions to controul.
*Forms thou regard'st not where she's found;
For faults still cleave to human things;
In Courts if Parasites abound,
Republics have their Gallatins.†
O! bless thou still my humble lot,
While thy sound maxims I revere,
Still smile within my lowly Cot,
And banish far distrust, and fear.
Guard and protect the tuneful Muse,
While truth and reason guide her Song,
But, if base license‡ she should use,
Then stay, O Goddess!—stopher tongue.

‡ The principles of French revolution.

* Particular systems of Government.

† "Ah"! cry the small Federalists, in their usual cant, "the Scots Irishman goes too far." But he begs of them not to be alarmed; he means not to advocate kingly power and Aristocratic Government, the mention of which, he knows, always sickens their squeamish stomachs. He wishes only, that the organs of our own Government might be made strong enough to be able to save such small fish as himself from being devoured by the Grampuses of Faction, who sport among the troubled waves of Contustion, and delight in the storm.—We have feasted largely upon Liberty, even in loathing: Let us now, for God's sake, look out for a little quiet and security to restore our satiated appetites.

‡ The abuse of the liberty of writing, to the purposes of slander, and defamation, and unmerited satire upon the good and praise worthy.

The Swift-Sure,

A NEW LINE OF STAGES,

NOW RUNNING BETWEEN

PHILADELPHIA & NEW-YORK,

By the short and pleasant road of Bustleton, Newtown, Scotch Plains, Springfield and Newark.

THE excellence of this road, the populousness of the country through which it passes, with sundry other advantages, which render it so far preferable to the Old Road through Bristol, Brunswick, &c. long ago suggested the propriety of its becoming the Grand Thorough-Fare from Philadelphia to New York. During the present year, a minute survey of it has been taken, and its superiority over the Old Road, both in winter and summer, has been clearly ascertained.—There are good bridges over all the other waters but the Delaware, and here the crossing is performed with great safety and in less than half the time required at the Trenton Ferry. The road is several miles shorter than the old road, but this is amongst the least of its advantages, because daily experience proves to us, that dispatch as well as comfort in travelling principally depend on the goodness of the road and the levelness of the country, and, in these respects, the New Road is, beyond all comparison, the best. It presents none of those rocky hills, which render the Old Road so fatiguing between the Delaware and Newark. The soil, too, for the greater part, is such as to produce but little mud in winter, and very little dust in summer, which circumstance, added to the beauty of the country, and a considerable proportion of shade, must always render travelling in the latter season peculiarly agreeable.

The Swift Sure starts from PHILADELPHIA, at 6 o'clock every morning (Sundays excepted) from the GREEN TREE, opposite the Lutheran Church, North Fourth Street. It goes through Frankford to Bustleton, where it stops to Breakfast; from Bustletown it goes through Newtown to Penny-town to dinner; from Penny-town through Hopewell, Millstone, Bound-brook, Quibbletown and Plainfield to Scotch Plains to lodge. The next morning it stops at Springfield to breakfast, from whence it goes through Newark and arrives at New-York at noon.

From NEW-YORK it starts at 3 o'clock in the afternoon (from Paulus Hook) and arrives at Philadelphia the next evening. For seats at New-York, application may be made to Edward Bardin, Old Coffee house, to A. Mathieu, corner of Nassau and John streets, to B. Many, no. 48, Courtlandt, corner of Greenwich street, and to Michael Little, at his hotel, no. 42, Broad street.

Fare for passengers, Five Dollars.
Way passengers 6 Cents per Mile.

Each passenger is allowed to take on 14lbs. of baggage carriage free; but all other baggage, taken on by a passenger, will be charged at 4 cents per pound weight.

With respect to packages sent on without passengers, the proprietors presume they have adopted a regulation, which, though unknown to other lines of stages, they think must meet with general approbation. They pledge themselves to make good every package on the following conditions. The person who delivers the package at the office shall see it entered in the stage-book, for which entry he shall pay 6 cents; he will then state the value of the package, and pay (exclusive of the carriage) one per cent. on the value, as insurance, and for which he will receive a receipt. Thus, for instance, if he estimates his package at one dollar, he will pay one cent. and if at one hundred dollars, he will pay one dollar insurance, and in like proportion for packages of any other value.

Very few persons it is presumed, will dislike this regulation; it will however, be optionable with every one to avail himself of this security or not. But the proprietors think it right to state very explicitly, that they will be responsible for the safe delivery of no package, which is not regularly entered, and for which an insurance receipt cannot be produced.

In the distribution of the route, the greatest care has been taken to fix on such places and taverns as always afford a good accommodation and entertainment for the passengers at the most reasonable rates. The stages are well equipped furnished with fleet and steady horses, and committed to the care of intelligent sober and obliging drivers. The proprietors themselves live at the different towns and villages where the stages will stop, so that the conduct of the persons they employ is continually an object of their attention.—They take care also to see that the passengers are well provided for and politely treated at the taverns, and that no sort of chicanery or insolence is practised upon them; in short, they have spared neither pains nor expence to render the SWIFT-SURE the very best line of stages in America.

The line has now run nearly a month, during which time a great number of gentlemen have gone through, both from Philadelphia and New-York. Every passenger has found the road to surpass very far all that has been said of its excellence; and the Proprietors of the Swift Sure are extremely happy to hear the behaviou, of their drivers, and the treatment at Taverns spoken of with the highest satisfaction.

MÆVIAD.

By WILLIAM GIFFORD, ESQUIRE.

To which is prefixed,

A POETICAL EPISTLE TO THE AUTHOR

By an American Gentleman.

[In introducing this celebrated work to the Gentlemen and Ladies of America, I have endeavored to give it a dress proportioned to its distinguished merit, and to the taste of those for whose amusement and delight it is intended. No expence has been spared in the publication; and I flatter myself that the work does not yield, either in paper or print, to any one ever published in America.—This edition has an advantage over some former ones, as it contains by way of notes, the minor productions of the author; and, it has an advantage over every other edition, to the Poetical Epistle which is prefixed to it, and which must be extremely gratifying to every lover of literature in this country, as it is a proof that there are Americans who have the taste to admire, the justice to applaud, and the talents to rival the Geniuses of other nations.

☞ Some Copies have been sent on to Mr. Sowerville, Maiden Lane, New York, also to Mr. Pill, Baltimore, and to Mr. Young, Charleston.
